Provincial and College President Sail for Europe, April 29

BON VOYAGE!

V. Rev. Joseph Marling, C.P.P.S.

V. Rev. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S.

After June, Tink Forsee, '34, will be Dr. Guy Forsee. He is going down the home stretch in his medical studies at the University of Louisville.

Two of the College's most prominent Alumni, the Very Rev. Joseph Marling, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., '23, and the Very Rev. Aloys Dirksen, C.P.P.S., S.T.D., '20, are to sail for Europe at noon Saturday, April 29, on the Conte di Savoia.

The Provincial of the Society of the Precious Blood and the President of St. Joseph's College have been summoned to Rome to consult with the new Moderator General of the Society about the condition of the German, Spanish and Italian Provinces in view of unsettled times in Europe.

They expect to return early in June.

"I regret exceedingly that circumstances have arisen to compel my absence from the College on Alumni Day," Father Dirksen said. "I had looked forward to the event with keen anticipation.

"It would have been a genuine happiness to welcome old St. Joe men back to the College as I have found all my contacts with the Alumni, especially at the Chapter meetings, thoroughly enjoyable and delightful.

"May I now in the name of the Faculty of St. Joseph's welcome home all of St. Joseph's loyal sons. May Alumni Day be a most happy one."

COLLEGE MAKES PLANS FOR FIRST FIELD MASS

The first Field Mass in the history of St. Joseph's will be held here Sunday, May 14, for Alumni and other Catholics of the Lafayette and Logansport deaneries.

The sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Henry A. Lucks, C.P.P.S., Ph.D., '21, Dean of Studies. Officiating will be the Very Rev. Michael Aichinger, of Logansport, celebrant; the Rev. Frederick Fehrenbacher, '22, vice-president of the College, deacon; and the Rev. William Hordeman, '00, of Frankfort, subdeacon. The College Choir will sing the Mass.

FR. SHEERAN URGES ALUMNI TO COOPERATE

OLD GRADS MAY SET NEW RECORD FOR ATTENDANCE

Feverish, last-minute arrangements are being rushed through in Alumni Chapters and at College for what promises to be a history-making Homecoming, May 7 and 8.

"From all indications a new high attendance number will be set," said the Rev. Joseph Sheeran, C.P.P.S., '31, guest master. "And so I hope that every Alumnus who intends to return will drop me a penny post card saying that he will be here. That is the only way I can get an idea of what arrangements to make for food and lodging."

Sunday, May 7, will be registration day. Every former student who returns to the campus is asked to register in the Alumni Office at the south end of the first floor of the Main Building.

Prof. Tonner will present his traditional band concert Sunday afternoon. By popular demand, the C.L.S. will re-stage on Sunday night the uproarious Broadway hit "Nut Farm," which it gave February 21.

A Mass will be said Monday morning for departed Alumni.

Various chapters will play each other softball. The Rev. Edward Roof, C.P.P.S., athletic director, is making every effort to schedule a varsity home game for that day.

The annual Alumni Association banquet will start at noon in the College dining hall. This will be followed by a business meeting and an election of Association officers.

Present officers of the Association are: President, the Rev. Ildephonse Rapp, C.P.P.S., '00; vice-presidents, Joe Gibson, '31, of Kokomo, and the Rev. Ferd Evans, '26-'28, Cincinnati; secretary-treasurer, J. Henry Hipkind, '11, Fort Wayne; historian, the Rev. Sylvester Lev, C.P.P.S., '18.

Rolls Like Ol' Man River

On the first page of the Chicago Tribune's sport section Tuesday morning April 18 appeared the following story about John Klen, '18-'24:

Cleveland, O., April 17 — Mediocre opening games cost Whiting, Ind., and Chicago entrants higher berths in the American Bowling Tournament today.

John Klen, 35-year-old city clerk of Whiting, Ind., started his single series with 189, due to two splits. He came back with 245 and then hit seven consecutive strikes to score 253 for 687 total, high series of the day.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

An alumnus who studied at St. Joe from '10 till '14 flipped back a few pages of the Book of Time and asked:

Do you remember "Come in! No! Get out!" "Put it down! Put it down!" and "Where will it end?"

Do you recall the outlying "station" between the Faculty Building and Main Building; the grandstand "sit-down strike" that fizzled, and the time the prefect and students "marched to the sea?" Surely you haven't forgotten when you read Gym Junk and Diamond Dust; when the refectory apple-sauce held a royal flush and when varsity teams were called "Reps." Remember when we took our hash and buns like men; when town days were scarce and when professors didn't play golf?

Describes War in China

Horrors of the war in China were described by Father William, C.P., in a letter to his former classmate, Ed Ernst, '10-'13, president of the Fort Wayne Alumni Chapter.

Father William is remembered on the St. Joe campus as Lawrence Westhoven, '11-'13. He writes:

"Here in the interior, (Chihkiang, Hunan, China) we have been bombed twice by Jap planes. Both raids occurred in November — 18 bombers each trip. I'm telling you an air raid is a thriller! It was the airport the 'dwarfs' were after. And they hit it, too. Jap troops have entered Hunan Province in the northeast corner. It is extremely doubtful whether they will ever cross over and enter this mountainous section of the Province. But their air force will give us plenty to think about.

"During November I opened an emergency hospital and the first patients were the air raid victims. What ghastly shrapnel wounds they had! And then came the refugees — 110,000 of them to this district. Right now (January 10, 1939) I am busy putting up sheds to house a quota of them."

Gets Around in Aurora

Wilfrid J. (Butch) Ullrich, '21-'25, of Aurora, Ind., has four sons he hopes to send to St. Joe. He is pharmacist and manager of Ullrich's Drug Store. After leaving St. Joe, Butch played some football at Notre Dame and was graduated from that University with a Ph.C. in 1929. He is active in Aurora. Right now he is holding his third term as president of the Aurora Commercial Club and is a trustee at St. Mary's Church. He did some Scout work and held four or five offices in the Knights of Columbus. He is at present District Grand Knight. During his spare time he covers three counties for United Press and is Aurora correspondent for the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Pete Sets the Pace

First subscriber to CONTACT was Peter Heimes, '14-'15, college infirmarian. The Rev. Cyril Knue, C.P.P.S., M.A., '18, procurator at St. Charles Seminary, Carthage, O., was second. The Rev. Joseph H. Rohling, C.P.P.S., S.T.D., '23, vice-rector at St. Charles Seminary, was right up near the top of the list again. He was first to answer his questionnaire; he was third to send his subscription.

THE ROUNDUP

By

Coach Joe Dienhart

Our baseball team won its first two games and then dropped one to Butler 11-9.

The fellows defeated Indiana State 7-5 and Eastern Illinois 4-3. Winning pitchers were Joe Leugers, of Maria Stein, O., and Maurie Gutgsell, of Jasper, Ind. It was the first time either kid had pitched in a college ball game. Dick Cody, the Louisville Slugger, has gotten three hits out of four times at bat each game. He has a home run and a couple of triples to his credit.

We'll get another crack at Butler May 4 at Indianapolis. And after that comes Xavier University, May 10, at Cincinnati; Indiana State, May 13, here; Wabash, May 18, at Crawfordsville; Manchester, May 22, at North Manchester; Ball State, May 25, here.

When kick-off time comes around again we are going to introduce something new in football, the "pivot huddle."

We are trying it out in spring practice and we find it snaps-up the game; makes the quarterback an absolute dictator; eliminates the chance of linemen not hearing signals; decreases effort and pleases the spectators with its grace and rhythm.

While the St. Joe quarterback calls signals, his linemen will stand with their backs to their opponents. From this position they will be able to watch the lips of the quarterback and so be more certain of hearing the signals correctly. And in this position a quarterback cannot be "heckled" by ten other players as he frequently is in the standard huddle system. There is no walking to the huddle and walking from it; and so time and effort are saved.

When the quarterback calls his final signal, linemen pivot in unity until they face their opponents and then they crouch. The backfield men step backward and space their positions according to the formations called. This rhythmic motion has a certain amount of aesthetic beauty in it that pleases the spectators. The entire team pauses momentarily and then the ball is snapped.

Here are the teams we will try it on next fall:

St. Norbert's College, of West DePere, Wis.	Sept. 24 Here
Valparaiso University	Sept. 30 Here
Ball State Teachers' College	Oct. 7 There
University of Louisville	Oct. 20 There
Central Normal College	Oct. 28 Here
Xavier University, of Cincinnati	Nov. 5 Here

Notice that St. Norbert's and Xavier games are on Sundays. Quite a few of you Alumni should be able to get over here for those.

ON THE CAMPUS

The Candy Store, for many years a fixture at the north end of the Faculty Building basement, has a rival now. The Coffee Shop has been opened at the south end of the Faculty basement. Remember when Brother Dave, '94-'95, used to cut hair and discuss the Cincinnati Reds? And remember how you wouldn't dare get a haircut if the Reds lost a double-header? Well, he has turned sissy. Now, as proprietor of the Coffee Shop, he mixes chocolate malteds and talks about cocoa and doughnuts.

St. Joseph College students will be on the air from 5:00 to 5:30 p.m. Saturday, May 20, over WIRE, an affiliated NBC station, at Indianapolis. So buy a couple of new tubes for the old radio and tune in.

A Drexel Hall Landscape Contest is being sponsored by the Very Rev. Aloys Dirksen, college president. Here is how it started: The fellows who live in Drexel Hall, formerly the Old Indian School, decided to make their side of the road equal in beauty to the Main Campus. So they took off their shirts and went to work day after day on the rugged acres surrounding Drexel. Father Dirksen was impressed by their good will; so he offered three cash awards for the best ideas for landscaping Drexel.

As CONTACT goes to press, last-minute plans are being made for the blending of youth, beauty and music at the Monogram Formal April 29 in the Rensselaer Armory. A list of Alumni who attend the dance will be printed in the next issue.

WHY DO OLD GRADS ALWAYS WIN?

Soft ball games are gaining in popularity at St. Joe on Alumni Day. Here is one from last year. Alumni Chapters play each other and students play the winner. Why it is that the grads can score fewer runs than the students and still be written down in the books as victorious is a mystery to the young men about the campus.

PHOTOG RECALLS OLD DARK ROOM IN GYM

Here's a quotation from a letter sent by Leo Schramer, '22-'25, assistant cashier of the Virgil State Bank, Virgil, Ill.

"I operated what was known as the College Photo Shop and my so-called headquarters were located below the north entrance on the east side of the gym. Oh yes, I could even turn around in the room. But if I remember correctly only one or two customers could be handled in comfort at one time, and "duck your head" was the password.

"The hours spent in the old dark room will never be forgotten. Many of the varsity and class group pictures rated space in the St. Joseph College Picture Catalogue.

"However, I would like to add that after leaving St. Joe and the College Photo Shop I never developed another single picture."
